About Us . . .

We are a group of country woodworkers, working in the wood we know and understand—the white pine of our New Hampshire mountain forests.

We enjoy our work and are proud of our wares—the craftsmanship, the design and the ideas from which they stem.

Thanks to those of you who have ordered and reordered from us, we have prospered and added many new items to our line. We intend to continue our growth—by giving a full measure of value and by pleasing you, our livelihood.

About Pine . . .

Pine is a friendly wood, warm, of flowing grain and even tone, pleasant to the touch. American as apple pie, pine has companioned our ways from the days of the early settlers. Pine is casual, informal, a man's wood. Because it is easy to live with, easy to care for, pine is ideally suited to our present mode of living.

About Our Wares . . .

Though our wares are fashioned largely by hand in the old wood and the old manner, they are styled to the comforts and charm of the American home of today. Since this brochure is our display room and only sales person, we sincerely hope the unique pieces here offered meet with your favor.

What They Say

"The enclosed picture shows the 4 finished swivel stools at our bar. Everyone loves them. We were doubtful about putting the kits together as we never had before, but the parts all fit perfectly. The Honeytone finish went on easily and looks just lovely. The whole project was fun and we wanted you to know about it."
W. G. J., Albany, N. Y.

"When we ordered the 'Trestle Table' we had our doubts. It sounded so simple we wanted to try. The table turned out even better than you said it would. It was finished in time for a party we were having and you should have heard my friends. I'll do the tile coffee table next—when we have the cash."
M. K., Minneapolis, Minn.

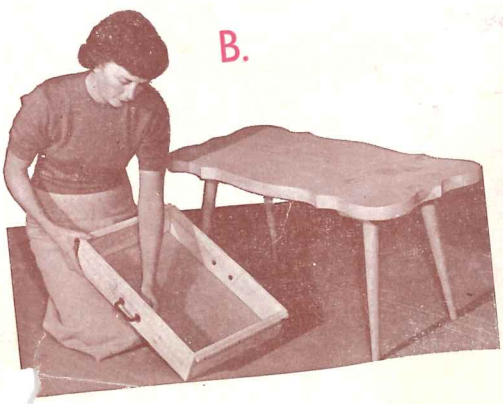
"My wife and I were thrilled with the way our magazine rack turned out. The directions were so easy to follow it took us only 25 minutes. We used two coats of stain followed by two coats of wax. I think even you would be pleased with the way it looks."
T. B., Hartford, Conn.

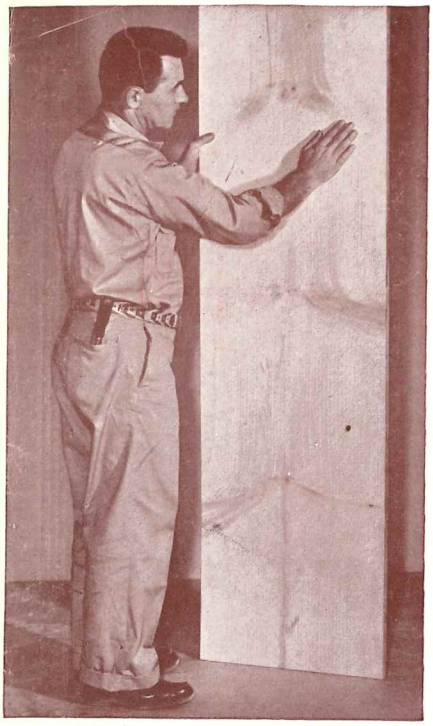
"You are to be complimented on your gun rack kit. Mine arrived a few days ago and I was amazed how easy it was to assemble. All my friends admire it and you will be getting orders from them soon."
J. A. W., Los Angeles, Calif.

"Your shoe chest was the first thing we had ever ordered sight unseen. Your advertising pictures do not begin to do it justice. It is simply beautiful and just what we wanted."
T. F. J., So. Bend, Ind.

"I enjoyed making the pipe rack so much that I now want to order the magazine rack kit. I was surprised at how simple it was to put this kit together. It looks wonderful —I didn't know I was that good."
A. T. Jr., Atlanta, Ga.

"I have just finished putting together the 8-gun cabinet. It was much easier than I had figured and I must say I am completely satisfied with the result."
D. F. M., Philadelphia, Pa.





How We Got Our Reputation

Here's Bill, our foreman, inspecting one of those wide planks we use for table tops. None of that plywood for us—and no glued-up narrow stuff except where advantageous.

The wide ones in good white northern pine are hard to find these days. And Bill's particular—he won't use it all—only the good ones. Rejects go into house lumber.

Where do we find stock like this? It's an effort but well worth it. Many saw mills, large and small, save the wide ones for us, board by board. When they have a load we get it—air dry it, kiln dry it, plane it, inspect it—and if Bill passes it—use it. Oh, you'll like our tables.

PIDGE TAVERN TABLE

BY

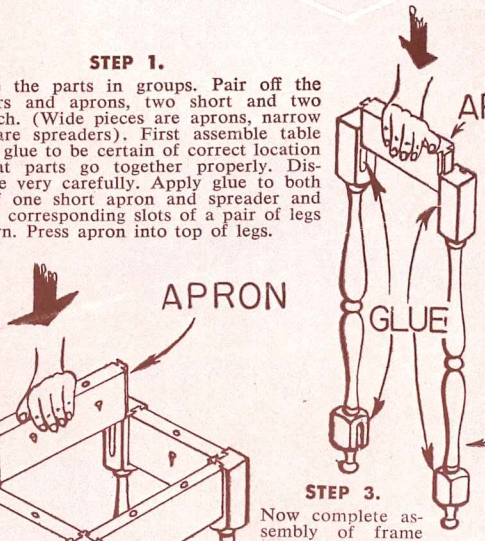
Yield House

North Conway, New Hampshire

Of primary importance are the special instructions which are printed upon the reverse side of this sheet and are applicable to all Yield House Furniture Kits.

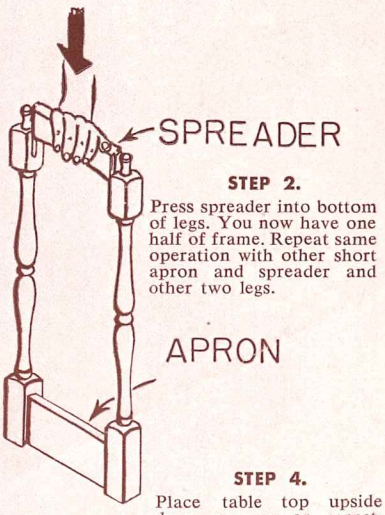
STEP 1.

Arrange the parts in groups. Pair off the spreaders and aprons, two short and two long each. (Wide pieces are aprons, narrow pieces are spreaders). First assemble table without glue to be certain of correct location and that parts go together properly. Disassemble very carefully. Apply glue to both sides of one short apron and spreader and into the corresponding slots of a pair of legs as shown. Press apron into top of legs.



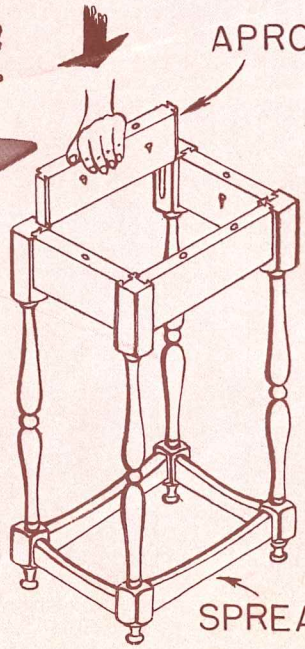
STEP 2.

Press spreader into bottom of legs. You now have one half of frame. Repeat same operation with other short apron and spreader and other two legs.



STEP 3.

Now complete assembly of frame by glueing and inserting the two long spreaders and then the two long aprons as shown.



STEP 4.

Place table top upside down on rug or carpet. Position frame as shown and insert screws.
